No. 655

February 2024

future meetings :

March 26th Members Evening - alternative transport
April ARO : my life of Ship Photography - part I May tbc

in the NEWS :

Dredging activities in port continued apace with the hard work being done by the backhoe dredger Magnor and the spoil being carried to the Nab spoil area by the Jan Blanken together with Union Onyx and Union Topaz hitched to the dumb barges Tereferre 501 and 502.

AI Avocet returned on 4th from dry-docking in Falmouth.

UKD Bluefin arrived from Swanses on 29th and immediately began work off EMT.

It has recently been learned that SCT have lost the FEMEX and IPAK services. This means no more smaller CMA vessels or odd-ball MSC's visiting for a while.

significant arrivals during February

The port hosted visits from several naval vessels in association with NATO's Operation Steadfast Defender. Not helped by Southampton VTS not listing these vessels it would appear we had FGS Bonn A.1413, FS Normandie D.651, ESPS Cantabria A.15, ESPS Christobal Colon F.105 and ESPS Almirante Juan de Borbon F.102. Portsmouth also saw visits from US, Italian and Spanish vessels.

The 24th saw the first visit of CMA's venture into car carriers with the arrival of the LNG-fuelled CMA CGM Indianapolis. She is a product of China Merchants Jinling Shipyard (Weihai) Co. Ltd and is chartered from Eastern Pacific Shipping.

On 21st the small freighter Sunmi arrived at St. Helens anchorage from Barking on 21st. She remained there until 24th when she was towed, dead ship, into 109 berth by the Lomax assisted by Wyestorm. She had clearly suffered some major mechanical problems. After unloading scrap at 109 she was moved to 108 berth on 28th to load grain and remained there at the month's end in March, WATCH OUT for :

Box boats making first visits expected during March include CMA CGM Concorde [FE3] 12th, Colombia Express [ad hoc] 12th, Zenith Lumos [FE3] 15th, CMA CGM Montmartre [FAL3] 23rd, CMA CGM Palais Royale [FAL3] 26th and APL Gwangyang [EPIC] 29th.
